This event is only using the Military Training Area part of the map. This comprises generally runnable mixed woodland, with an extensive path / track network and many earthwork features.
Note:
- Small parts of the area have been used for digging and infilling military 'fox holes' and so are rough under foot.
 - The area is known to contain adders, which may be seen in clearings basking in the sun on warm spring days.
- Results Results will be available on the DFOK website following the event at www.dfok.co.uk
- Officials Planner and Organiser: Neil Speers (DFOK) neil.speers@blueyonder.co.uk
Controller: Andrew Evans (DFOK)
